

Margaret Walkover, MPH

Margaret Walkover MPH, has over 20 years of experience in public health research, quality improvement and change management. Margaret has been a member of the Hawaii Public Health Association for two years and is a member of its Program and Membership committees. She has been a member of the American Public Health Association for seven years and Treasurer (and Chair) of the Mental Health Section for the last two years. Her experience with managing budgets, programs and organizational initiatives includes 10 years as a county program director and 12 years as a state and federal contract manager. Margaret is currently a lecturer at the University of Hawaii- Manoa for the Office of Public Health Studies where she teaches Advanced Evaluation Methods. Margaret earned her BA in Social Welfare from the University of California-Berkeley and an MPH from the Yale University School of Epidemiology and Public Health.